BODY: Muscular, Delicate, or Heavy

SMILE: Flirtatious, Proud, or Delighted

COSTUME: Bedlah, Romani, or Flamenco

Background

- ☐ Known Across the Lands
Your reputation is a source of opportunity and, sometimes, trouble. When you enter a civilized area, you'll receive a special invitation to: entertain a crowd at a notable building, attend a fete or festival, or have audience with- or perform for- a significant person.
- ☐ Starlet
You've attended enough classy soirées that navigating the attendees is as easy as breathing. When you go to a social event, name one person who will meet with you, and one person who you avoid (name NPCs, not player characters), then roll+WIS. On a Hit the GM will make it happen, if at all possible. On a 7-9, you only get one or the other.
- ☐ _____

- ☒ If You've Got It...
- Wearing anything that grants armor makes you clumsy.
 - The pleasure of seeing you perform always counts as leverage or payment, if you want it to.
 - Whenever you or an ally Carouse, and you promise to perform during the celebration, gain +1 to the roll without spending additional coin.

- ☒ Performance
When you dance for an audience, name the passion you put on display- pain, desire, freedom, anger, or etc. On a hit, that feeling swells up within everyone. On a 10+, take +1 forward with any one person in the audience. On a 7-9, you attract unwanted attention or your performance has the opposite effect on someone, GM's choice.

- ☒ A Wardrobe Full of Costumes
When you shop for clothing, jewelry, or disguises that aren't easily found, roll+CHA. On a 10+ you find what you want at a fair price. On a 7-9, someone knows where you can find some, but there are strings attached.

Choose your school of dance:

- ☐ Capoeira
Take the Fighter move Scent of Blood. You adorn yourself in jewelry and ornaments which double as weaponry. Choose two enhancements and a look from the Fighter's Signature Weapon, and add them to your outfit. Your adornments count as a Signature Weapon when multiclassing.

Starting Moves

- ☐ Carnal Desires
Pick two appetites from the Barbarian's Herculean Appetites. Whenever you Perform, name one of your appetites. On a Hit, your performance fills the audience with hunger, a need to satisfy the appetite you named. On a 10+ the hunger is dulled for everyone, or doubled for a specific person, your choice.

Instead of rolling 2d6 for Performance, you roll 1d6+1d8. If the d6 is the higher die of the pair, the GM will also introduce a complication or danger that comes about due to your wanton display. This move counts as Herculean Appetites when multiclassing.

- ☐ Poetry In Motion
When you Perform, choose a spell effect from the Bard's Arcane Art in addition to the other effects. On a Hit, give that effect to an ally. On a 7-9, your magic reverberates to other targets as well, GM's choice. This move counts as Arcane Art when multiclassing.

- ☐ Gurdjieff Movements
Take the Cleric move Deity. When you Perform, you can unleash a Cleric spell of your level minus one or lower. If you do, on a 7-9 pick outcomes from both the Perform move and the Cleric's Cast A Spell. Spells with ongoing effects only last as long as you keep dancing.

When you spend uninterrupted time performing for only your deity, you regain access to any previously revoked spells and recover from any -1 ongoing penalties to spellcasting. This move counts as Cast a Spell when multiclassing.

Bonds

Fill in at least one with the name of a companion, or write your own:

_____ promised to show me the beauty of _____, you're more beautiful than you know; I'll help you realize that.

_____ is no leader, they should follow my steps.

Alignment

☐ Neutral

Keep everyone entertained.

☐ Good

Help someone let loose and express themselves.

☐ Chaotic

Whip an audience into a frenzy.

☐ _____

Gear

Choose your weapon:

- ☐ Whip (reach, precise, 1 weight)
- ☐ Dagger (hand, 1 weight)
- ☐ Two Scimitars (close, 1 weight each)

Choose two:

- ☐ Dungeon Rations (5 uses, ration, 1 weight)
- ☐ 3 Throwing Daggers (thrown, near, 0 weight)
- ☐ Halfling Pipeleaf (6 uses, 0 weight)
- ☐ 20 coin

Advanced Moves

When you gain a level from 2-10, you may choose from these moves:

☐ A Practiced Act

At the beginning of every session, name another player's character to be your dance partner. You both gain +1 ongoing to all Aid rolls with each other. When either of you rolls 9- on Aid, instead of suffering consequences aside the person you aided, you can end the ongoing +1.

☐ Grab Your Partner Do-Si-Do

When you Hack and Slash and roll 7-9, you can elect to take damage twice and deal damage twice.

☐ Multiclass Student

Choose a non-multiclass advanced move, at your level or lower, from the playbook related to your chosen school of dance.

☐ Multiclass Graduate

Requires: Multiclass Student

Choose a non-multiclass advanced move, at your level or lower, from the playbook related to your chosen school of dance.

☐ Never Out Of Step

You are always clearly aware of the people and things within Reach of you. Even when you're facing the other way. Even when the situation gets chaotic. Only things that make an effort to stay hidden can evade your senses.

☐ Wardance

When you Hack and Slash or Defy Danger in a physical way and roll 10+, you gain +1 armor forward.

☐ Lead Someone On A Merry Dance

When you cause a distraction to hold someone's attention on you as you prance around them, roll+DEX. On a 10: hold 3 Flight. On a 7-9, hold 1. If you're in a place that you know well, gain an additional Flight. Spend your Flight one-for-one to:

- Give them the slip and appear somewhere else nearby.
- Redirect an attack from yourself to a nearby target.
- Open up an opportunity for an ally; they take +1 forward against your pursuer.

☐ Don't Let Them Tame You

When you perform for yourself, and you alone, don't roll Perform, instead clear one debility or break yourself free of an enchantment or glamour. Ask the other characters if anyone is watching you do this: if they are, ask them one of the following questions; they must answer honestly:

- What do you wish I would do, now or later?
- What do you wish you were able to do, but cannot?
- What passions does my performance ignite in you?
- What do you desire, but is out of reach?

☐ Acrobat

You are capable of movements that seem to defy human limits. When you showcase a feat of strength that verges on the superhuman like an enormous leap, a burst of parkour, or dangling from a wild creature, roll+STR. On a 10+ choose two. On a 7-9, choose one.

- Take +1 Forward afterward.
- Pick someone who can see you: they're very impressed.
- You don't get hurt or put in a bad spot.

☐ The Minuet

When you corner a person into an entanglement of propriety (a conversation, a dance, a fight, etc.), no matter who they are they have to accept and turn their focus to you. People on the sidelines will watch and judge your performances accordingly, Roll+CHA; on a 10+ Hold 3 Consort, on a 7-9 Hold 2. On a 6-, Hold 1, and the GM gets to make a move as hard as they want. You can spend Consort one-for-one to:

- Recover from a mistake or misstep.
- Cause them to misstep or make a mistake.
- Tell them or give them something which no one else hears or sees.
- Help them, or yourself, impress all onlookers.

Etiquette requires both of you to stay engaged until the matter is finished. If they break away from you early, gain 1 XP for each Consort you still hold. If you break away early, take -1 Forward for each Consort you still hold.

Notes

Advanced Moves

When you gain a level from 6-10, you may choose from these moves:

☐ Multiclass Trainer

Requires: Multiclass Graduate

Take an advanced move from any playbook.

☐ Uncanny Awareness

Requires: Never Out Of Step

The GM will let you know when anyone tries to sneak up on you or sneak away from you.

☐ Wartrance

Replaces: Wardance

When you Hack and Slash or Defy Danger in a physical way and roll 10+, you gain +2 armor forward.

☐ Evoker

Requires: Carnal Desires

When you spend time (hours or days) dancing around an elemental font, the font responds to your effort. Say what your movements implore the elements to do, then the GM will name up to three conditions as a requirement. If you meet these conditions then you can have what you wanted.

- Sacrifice something precious and without replacement.
- Dance until delirium and exhaustion takes you.
- Loose the font upon the world, wild and without restraint.
- Allow the font to mark you as its own.

☐ Invocation

Requires: Gurdjieff Movements

When you spend uninterrupted time dancing in communion with your deity, you summon a manifestation of their power or their domain. You can tell the GM what you hope will happen- what your dance was meant to invoke- but whatever you brought into the world, it belongs to your deity, not to you. Roll+WIS; on a 10+ pick two, on a 7-9 pick one.

- It remains for a while (hours, days, weeks).
- It is especially potent or powerful.
- It can be reasoned with, or your deity will listen if you ask it to stop.

☐ Haka

Requires: Capoeira

Increase your damage die to d8. You can wear armor and not be clumsy.

When you taunt your enemies in the middle of battle by flexing your terrible strength and ferocity as a dance, roll+STR. On a 10+, pick 2. On a 7-9, pick one.

- Your enemies feel fear and act accordingly (avoiding you, hiding, attacking with fear-driven abandon).
- Your enemies recognize you as their greatest threat, and you rise to the challenge. Take +2 damage ongoing during the battle.
- Your enemies are shaken and your allies rally. All of you take +1 Forward.
- You feel empowered, invincible. Ignore the penalty of one debility during the battle.

☐ Jibaro's Siren

Requires: Poetry In Motion

When you spend uninterrupted time adorning your body with elaborate jewelry, paints, and cloths, you wrap yourself in a glamour; name an emotion or impression- danger, auspice, envy, awe, or anything else- and the GM names one as well. While in your costume, anyone who looks at you sees the glamour first and the person second: they must associate you with the feeling you named, and they cannot associate you with the feeling the GM named.

When you get into costume and work your charms on a mark, pick the way you leverage your glamour...

- My glamour compels: they should do what I ask of them.
- My glamour intrigues: they should want more of what I have.
- My glamour overwhelms: they should cower before me.

...then ask the GM if your mark tries to resist your influence. If they resist, roll+CHA. On a 10+, they'll need to do something drastic to break the spell. On a 7-9 your influence is fragile, and could shatter from any misgiving.
